

“The Father and I will Come and Make Our Home With You”

During this year’s retreat season, we will take into account the very ideas of home and forgiveness. We will consider the importance of prayer and Eucharist, friendship and fidelity. The opportunity to participate in the sacrament of Reconciliation will be highlighted with a reflection on the sacrament itself in the context of an extended penance service.

Listening at a retreat, requires a change of heart. So this year we want to take listening one step further and really try to get right in the heart of things. That is why our theme: “the Father and I will come and make our home with you” builds on last year’s theme.
